

Privacy Notice – School Photographs – Angus & Amelia Photography

Angus & Amelia Photography will be visiting Kilcreggan Primary School to take individual and group photographs of pupils.

Angus & Amelia Photography will collect the following personal data about you:

- Photographs of you, on your own and with other pupils or teachers in your school.

This data will be collected directly from you.

Why we need your information

Angus & Amelia Photography's legal basis for collecting this information is UK GDPR Article 6(1)(f) legitimate interest; facilitating the sale of printed and digital photographs to the parents/carers of school pupils.

Angus & Amelia Photography will use your photograph(s) to create a proof card with accompanying order form to allow your parent or carer to order printed copies of photographs in which you are included.

Who we share it with

Parents of other pupils who are in the same photograph as you will also be able to purchase that photograph.

We store photographs on our servers and hard drives and additionally on our print laboratories servers to facilitate the hosting of your private online viewing and purchasing gallery. This data is stored in the United Kingdom.

We have photographs printed by One Vision - Pics4Schools. They process the data in the United Kingdom.
